

Serra High Boys Launch New Club

By WENDY PREISZ

Leadership was selected as the virtue of November at Serra Catholic High School. The boy and girl of the month, named for this qualification, are Virginia Nelke and Bob Saalfeld.

Virginia includes student council representative, top candy salesman and school reporter on her list of activities. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph N. Nelke of Zena Rd. NW.

Saalfeld, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Saalfeld of 595 Luther S, is student body president.

Semi-Formal Wednesday

Semi-formal is the magic word this week as Nov. 23, the date of the dance, moves closer. Wednesday's student council sponsored affair will be held at the Keg and Platter under the title of "The Night of Wine and Roses." Music will be by Arnie Manke's orchestra.

Programs are being sold in the main hall of the school.

New Club Formed

Under the title of Serra Social Action, several senior boys have formed a club to promote good will.

Those active are Steve Wichman, Dave Eatwell, Dan Harvey, Skip Hewitt, Larry Prantl and Bob Whiteman.

Their first project is a school drive to collect clothes for needy families of the Woodburn area.

2,898 in Salem Area Have X-ray Exams in Salem

Chest X-rays of 2,898 Salem area residents were taken last week during a campaign in Salem by the State Board of and a visitor in Salem Monday. Romino, a pleasant executive

Along with Fr. Joseph Randal, their moderator, several of the group visited SECAP in Portland to gather project ideas.

GAA Elects Officers

Another group met for the first time this year. However, it is not a club new to Serra Catholic High School. This is the Girls Athletic Association. The first meeting was devoted to the election of officers and planned activities.

Officers are president, Sherry Much; vice president, Janet Yeager; secretary, Mary Boire; treasurer, Karen Comstock.

A committee was formed to look into the possibility of a hamburger sale for money to buy equipment and sponsor trips.

Dancers Chosen

Dance routines will highlight the half-time entertainment at Serra Catholic High School's basketball games this season.

Tryouts for the group produced nine girls to present the routines. They are Candy Platt, Mary Sue Thompson, Caryn Cullinane, Nancy Schnobelen, Sue Schmitz, Linda Kubishta, Michelle Sommer, Mary Lou Keefer, Margaret Gamroth.

Athletes Honored

Letters for football were awarded at the assembly Nov. 18. Receiving their first letters were Roger Johnston, Mike Nelke, Mike Doran, Jim Plascar, Bob Koenig, Mike Rodgers, Ken Lejoy, Larry Welte, Ken Bronec, John Salstrom, Joe Duncan, John Rosato, Dave Meier, Bob Comstock, Larry Morris, Russell Stoner, Marc Rocque, Tim Bickler, Ben Blanco, Ken Hannegan. The team presented a gift of gratitude to their coach, William Gieber. The freshman and junior varsity teams also received recognition.

To inspire spirit at the Letterman Awards Assembly, Jim Steuve, Activities manager, announced a jersey day. All students were asked to wear some type of jersey top.