

Serra High and Sacred Heart Join for Ten-Year Reunion Dinner, Dance, Picnic

The first graduating class from Serra Catholic High School marked ten years this weekend at a reunion held jointly with the 1957 Sacred Heart Academy class. Serra Catholic at that time was exclusively a boys' school. The class of 1957 from Sacred Heart was the first all-girls class of the previously co-educational school.

A dinner - dance was held Saturday evening at the Knights of Columbus Hall. Special guests at the event, attended by 66 persons, were Mr. and Mrs. Leo Grosjacques, presently athletic director at Serra High and formerly an instructor at Sacred Heart Academy; Rev. Christian Mon-dor, OFM; Rev. John Francis Depaemelaere, O.F.M.; Brother Conrad, O.F.M.; Rev. Kevin Murphy OFM; and Rev. Claud Riffel, O.F.M.

On Sunday an all-day family picnic was at Bush Park.

Coming from out-of-state for the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Endres (Eloise Corey) of Phoenix, Arizona, each a graduate of the respective classes; Michael Earls, Bellevue, Wash.; Gene Gruchalla, Shrewsbury, Mass.; Mrs. Ted Gooding (Sally Joseph), Fairchild Air Force Base, Wash.; Dale Rock, San Jose, Calif.; and guests Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hamilton of San Francisco.

Co-chairmen from the Sacred Heart Academy class were Mrs. Richard Lefor (Jacqueline Doerfler) and Mrs. Don Nordone (Patricia Kindel). On their committee were Mrs. Edward J. Dougherty (Jan Larson), Mrs. Howard Smith, Jr. (Janie Stein), and Miss Victoria Schmidt.

On the committee from Serra High School for co-chairmen Richard Lefor and Don Nordone were Don Wernli and Dave Guzman.
