Carey, general supervisors; Roseann Kensler, decorations; Gail Backlund, music; Ginny Baker, refreshments; Jeannette Launer, programs and Joyce Storms, chaperones.

The chocolate drive ended last week. Highest selling class was the juniors, who also reached their 100 per cent goal first. The seniors came in a close second, freshman were third, and sophomores fourth. Top sellers were Gayle Tracy and Kathy Iwen. These girls, plus Jo Krause, Mary Ann Crawford and Gerri Smith, were the top five sellers.

CONFERENCE SCHEDULED

The 1966 Annual Oregon Sodality Conference will be held at Sacred Heart from Feb. 18-20. Delegates from eleven schools in Oregon will attend. Rev. William Ryan, J.S., St. Ignatius High School in San Francisco, will be the guest speaker. Rev. Ryan travels with the summer school Christian Apostolate which conducts week-long sessions in 12 major cities of the United States on Christian leadership. Committee chairmen for the event are Bobbie Brophy, Marki Yriarte, Marilyn Etzel, Mary Ann Hoeller, Kathy Iwen, Sue Gilles, Mary Heckel, Cecilia Heckel and Mary Jo Hunegar.

From Feb. 6-10 the students will commemorate St. Vincent De Paul Week.

Also, during this week Sister

Mary Annette and Sister Mary Consilla from the Archdiocesan Office of Education will visit the school and observe student progress.

RADIO DAY SET

On Feb. 27 Sacred Heart will sponsor a Radio Day on KBZY in Salem. At this time the students give commercials on behalf of the Salem area merchants.

March 1 has two activities scheduled. The National Merit Scholarship Test is to be taken by the juniors. Also, several Oregon College of Education students from Monmouth will visit to observe teaching techniques.
